“ I always loved it when Angie would come over to my mom and dad's apartment for dinner and for tea. Her company was warm and compassionate. Her stories made us laugh. She had a heart of gold which was always charitable ,which I have the fondest memories of when she would take her grandson and I to Knott's Berry Farm to watch us go on all the rides. I will never forget how much she loved to take us to diners for lunch or to dinner.

In my last visit to California Angie met my fiancée Jordan, which made her so happy that my mom called to say Angie so happy to us that it made her emotional.

Angie, as you are in our thoughts and prayers we hope that you can see us at our wedding.

We love and miss you Angie

“ Angie was my mom's boss back in the day. I remember her since I was a little girl but over the years she became so much more than my mom's boss and friend. I called her my “Italian Grandmother” as she was truly dear and special to our family. I loved her stories about her childhood and the jokes she and her siblings would play on each other when they were growing up in New York. Angie's warmth, wisdom, generosity and sense of humor will always be remembered. I know her life was full but I will miss my “Italian Grandma.”

“ I met Angie at the Arrowhead Apts, where she made everyone feel like A Big Family. So kind, thoughtful, heartfelt. Kept in touch after through the Kuzniaks... Such a dear soul! ~May you be rejoicing in the Lord's presence now, and may the God grant the family comfort and peace as you are missed.

“ My childhood memory of Aunt Angie always goes to Christmas. She was so generous and came up with the neatest gifts of all. I remember getting a Wing Thing a gas power kinda kite that was a ton of fun. She had such a good heart, and was a kind soul.

She will be missed by all who knew her.

“ Angie was one of the most caring people I had the opportunity of knowing. She worried about me so much because of my health and asked for a key so she could check on me. I will miss her so much.

“ I am heartbroken missing Angie. She was such a wonderful, kind, loving person. She truly helped shaped my son Danny into the incredible man he is today. I love that she and my daughter Holly had a close relationship, calling each other frequently.

She was always over the top and incredibly generous to the kids at Christmas. Everything done so thoughtfully. She would shop year round and her Christmas stockings were over the top! The thing I miss most is her sense of humor. She actually gift wrapped toilet paper at Christmas and laughed and said, "because you're full of sh#@!"

She always sent the funniest cards, she took the time to select the wildest ones!

Rest in peace, beautiful Angie. You are the best Grandma Angie and Mother in Law in the entire world!

“ Angie and I have been friends for 24 years. We worked together at RK Properties.

Angie was always there for you. We talked on the phone at least 1-2 times a month. We would catch up on what was going on in each others life and talk about all are ailments.

She was kind, loving, caring, and funny and I will miss her. Her name comes up first on my phone list and it took me weeks before I could bring myself to remove it.

She left us peacefully in her sleep. That was the way she always wanted it. Good-bye my friend.
